

Fifth Annual

Making A Difference In The Dominican Republic

June 25, 2015

New York City

SPONSORSHIP PACKAGE

2015 Honoree

Pedro Martinez

The event annually honors an individual or organization that has made a difference in the Dominican Republic.

2015 Honoree - Together with his wife Carolina, Martinez runs the Pedro Martinez and Brothers Foundation, headquartered on the outskirts of Santo Domingo, where he helps impoverished youths in his hometown of Manoguayabo. Besides operating a school, the foundation has also built 30-40 homes and two churches in his hometown. Their motto: “Hay poder en aprender,” or “There is power in learning.” Martinez was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in January on 91.1% of the votes.

2014 Honoree – Rafael Perez, Director, Dominican Office Operations for Major League Baseball. Perez initiated several education programs for Dominican prospects.

2013 Honoree – The Pittsburgh Pirates. The Pirates are the only MLB team with a mandatory comprehensive education program for their Dominican prospects.

2012 Honoree – Lou Melendez, MLB executive who retired after 29 years with the league; throughout his career, Melendez demonstrated an unwavering commitment to player education and community outreach programs in the Dominican Republic.

Proceeds Benefit the Dominican Republic Sports & Education Academy

The mission of the DRSEA is to educate young and gifted student athletes from around the world in the Dominican Republic, help develop their athletic skills, and give them the tools to succeed in life on and off the field. Through a rigorous educational component, the DRSEA will prepare young boys to have the opportunity for scholarships at U.S. colleges and universities. The DRSEA’s goal is to build a state-of-the-art sports and education complex in the Dominican Republic. For more information, go to www.drsea.org.
